Innocent Men Lynched.

UNION, W. A., Oct. 1.—Reliable information from Bluefield, Mercer county, shows the recent lynching of the negro, Samuel Garner, to have been on a par with the hanging of John Turner in Greenbrier county, in July. Like Turner, Garner was lynched for a crime he never committed. He was charged with a criminal assault on a seven-year-old girl. The Mercer county authorities have made a number of arrests of parties having a hand in the lynching and the suspects are in jail at Princeton. There is a determination to go to the bottom of the matter and there has been quite an exodus from Bluefield in consequence.

The Next World's Fair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—A cable special from Paris on the prospective world's fair, contains an interview with M. Eugène Tonaka, the Japanese commissioner to the Paris Exposition, in which he favored San Francisco as the best place for the fair. The commissioners from Germany favored Chicago, while nearly all the others want it held in New York.

Over three thousand French deserters who have been living in Geneva have been benefitted by the late Amnesty law, and have left with their families to return to their country.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

A REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

WASHINGTON GOES REPUBLICAN BY MANY THOUSANDS.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 1, 10 p. m.—Returns so far received at the headquarters of the republican state central committee indicate that the constitution has been adopted by a very heavy majority. It is certain also that the republicans have elected their state ticket, representatives in congress and a large majority of the members of the legislature.

Thurston county shows a heavy increase of the total vote, and goes republican by 300 to 500. King county is reported to have elected the whole republican ticket, except superior judge.

In Pierce the vote is very heavy, and largely for the constitution and the republican ticket.

Whitman county is reported against the constitution, but has gone republican.

Clarke county is reported largely in favor of the constitution and the republican ticket.

Half the vote of Seattle is thrown for Olympia for the capital. Nearly the whole vote of the state south and west of Olympia, except a small vote at Centralia, is also for Olympia. Pierce is about evenly divided between Olympia and other points. Olympia carries most of the counties down the Sound by good majorities.

11:30 p. m.—Spokane Falls reports 300 to 400 majority. A large majority is given, too, for the constitution. In Clarke county so far the republican state ticket is elected 2 to 1. Pierce county gives the republican state ticket a large majority. The republicans carry everything in the county. Thurston county gives the constitution over 1000 majority. The republican majority on the whole ticket in Thurston is 450. Lewis gives strong majority for the constitution and the republican state ticket, and elects the whole republican county ticket. So far as heard from the vote against prohibition and woman suffrage is two or three to one. It is claimed at the headquarters of the republican state central committee that the constitution will have 20,000 majority and the republican state 8000 to 10,000 majority and that the democrats will not elect more than twenty members of the legislature out of 105. All places so far heard from report an enormous increase of the total vote.

12:30 a. m.—In Whitman county the constitution is getting a better vote than heretofore reported. The republican state ticket has two to three hundred majority. The whole county republican ticket seems to be elected. The capital count here shows two to one for Olympia over all so far.

In Spokane county the estimated majority on the republican state ticket is eight hundred. No estimate of the vote on the capital can be given to-night.

In Walla Walla county 920 votes are counted, giving a republican majority of 214. The whole republican legislative ticket is elected.

AT LEAST TEN THOUSAND.

2 a. m.—At republican headquarters it is claimed that the state ticket is elected by at least 10,000 majority, and it is considered doubtful whether the democrats have elected ten members of the legislature out of 105 in all. The majority for the constitution can scarcely be estimated, but will be very large.

Indications are that the majorities against woman suffrage and prohibition will be heavy. The Olympians are jubilant over the vote this town has received for the state capital, but it is hardly probable that it has obtained an absolute majority.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

The Deplorable Fate of an Eighteen Year-Old Girl.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1.—A special from Salathiel, Kan., says: This place is wildly excited to-night over a brutal assault on Eva Purty, the eighteen-year-old daughter of a wealthy farmer. During the absence of her parents at church, an unknown man entered the house, seized and chloroformed the girl and brutally assaulted her. Carbolic acid was then poured down her throat and she was left to die. The latter act cast suspicion upon the discarded lover of the victim, but he was not arrested.

Squads of men were sent out to capture the fiend and a tramp named Richard Hollow was arrested though there is no direct evidence against him. The prisoner narrowly escaped lynching. The girl cannot live through the night.

INDIAN MARRIAGES.

A Tacoma Judge Decides Them Invalid.

TACOMA, W. T., Oct. 1.—Judge Beverly of the Probate Court has reached an important conclusion concerning the disposition of Indian estates on the Puyallup reservation that are now under consideration of the Probate Court. There are twenty-eight of these estates left by Indians who have died within the last two or three years. Many of these dead braves were married several times, some according to territorial laws and some according to Indian customs. The question at issue is whether the children of wives married according to Indian customs only are legal heirs of dead Indians.

Judge Beverly pondered long over this question, as he disliked to rule that innocent wives married according to custom and their children had no claim whatever upon the estates of their dead husbands and fathers.

He has reached the conclusion that these wives and their children will have to be left out in the cold. Judge Beverly could find no established precedent in this case, and consequently he had to use his own judgment in reaching his decision. He thinks the only hope for illegitimate wives and children will be a special enactment by the legislature making marriages by Indian custom legal.

Peter Stanup, the best-educated Indian of the tribe, is now at work at the reservation getting the evidence needed to settle the twenty-eight cases into systematic shape, so that they can be more easily disposed of. In most of the cases it is likely that Stanup will be appointed administrator of the estates, as he is one of the few Indians on the reservation qualified to act in that capacity. As the Indians have no complete title to their land on the reservation, all that the Probate Court can do is to distribute the personal property and the possessory title of the estates to be settled among the legal heirs.

The question of who are and who are not legal heirs may come up again when the United States Government, at the end of the twenty years that they have to wait, issue patents to the Indians for their lands. Some of the estates to be settled are valued at from $20,000 to $25,000. Judge Beverly says that all of the Indians now get married according to "white man's style."

Sealers Excited.

OTAWA, Oct. 1.—British Columbia advises to-day, say that the United States cruiser Rush, will soon call at Victoria on her way south, and it is feared trouble will arise between the crews of the seized, sealing schooners and their friends and the crew of the Rush if the latter attempts to anchor in the harbor.

The crews of the sealers, most of whom are now at Victoria, are in the wildest state of excitement over the loss of their summer's work and the confiscation of their skins.

They say that if they cannot get redress through the British Government they will take it out of the United States cutter that stole their seal skins.

The militia is to be held ready to prevent an attack on the cutter. There are many roughs at Victoria who would join the indignant sealers if the latter attacked the Rush.

Not To Be Farted.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Despite all reports respecting the breaking off of the engagement of Count Hatzfeldt to Miss Huntington, there is the best authority for saying that an amicable agreement has been completed, and that arrangements for the wedding are progressing. The marriage is to take place next week here in London. Count Hatzfeldt of New York are arranging the marriage settlement.

Postal Clerks Protest.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The postal clerks held two large meetings here to-day and formerly protested against the rate of pay they are receiving and the treatment of their demands by the secretary. They have decided to form a union, and a strike will probably follow unless their grievances are adjusted.

The movement to have the American flag displayed on public school buildings is growing in favor. In Newburgh, N. Y., it is proposed to have the flag hoisted every school day in the year, and a colored guard to attend to it, selected each month from the best school.
